

Homcoming Queen, Carmen Russo. (Photo by Marshall)

Carmen Russo Reigns Over '64 Court, Susan Campbell Football Sweetheart

Reigning as queen over Jesuit's 1964 homcoming court will be last year's football sweetheart, Carmen Russo, escorted by Samuel Thomas. The announcement came from the host of the event, the Jesuit Key Club. Sharing the spotlight will be football sweetheart, Susan Campbell, escorted by Michael Thibodeaux.

Michael Thibodeaux, who will escort Susan Campbell, is a member of the Key Club. He is also a member of the football team. Susan Campbell, who will be escorted by Michael Thibodeaux, is a member of the Key Club. She is also a member of the football team.

Area Clubs Plot 1964 Projects, Shreveport, Bossier, Vivian Meet

Key Club representatives from Shreveport, Bossier, and Vivian, Louisiana, met on October 3 to discuss plans for the year. The meeting was held at the Key Club in Shreveport. Representatives from the three clubs discussed various projects and activities for the coming year.

Boosters Spearhead Spirit, Noone, Roy Take Charge

From the ring of the first bell, summoning all students to what seems to be another long, drawn-out school year, a group of boys began working to promote spirit among the student body in all school activities, curricular and extra-curricular. From this group grew a new organization, the Boosters.

Mythical Pelican State Held, St. Martin, Bodenheimer Attended

Eugene St. Martin and James Bodenheimer attended the mythical pelican state held in Bossier Parish. The event was held at the Bossier Parish Convention Center. St. Martin and Bodenheimer were the main attractions of the event.

March of Dimes Names Rex Shaver North La. T.A.P. Chairman, First Sport Boy

Appointed chairman for the North Louisiana National Foundation of the March of Dimes is Rex Shaver. He will attend a meeting of executives from Louisiana and Mississippi on October 5 and 6 in New Orleans. Shaver is in charge of planning October 5 and 6 in New Orleans.

Sodality Executives Installed, Thibodeaux, Lerchie Appointed

Installation of new sodality officers was held today in St. John's Church. Michael Thibodeaux assumes leadership as prefect, assisted by Kenneth Lerchie. Instructors: Michael Rutenovich, first vice-prefect; and Robert Davis, second vice-prefect.

Forentnespic Widens Organization: Debate, Speech, and Dramatics

Father John Welch, S.J., announced and rechartered an organization called the Forentnespic Society. The society will include the activities of debate, speech, and dramatics. Welch is the president of the society.

The society will include the activities of debate, speech, and dramatics. Welch is the president of the society. The society will include the activities of debate, speech, and dramatics. Welch is the president of the society.

Area Clubs Plot 1964 Projects, Shreveport, Bossier, Vivian Meet

Key Club representatives from Shreveport, Bossier, and Vivian, Louisiana, met on October 3 to discuss plans for the year. The meeting was held at the Key Club in Shreveport. Representatives from the three clubs discussed various projects and activities for the coming year.

Boosters Spearhead Spirit, Noone, Roy Take Charge

From the ring of the first bell, summoning all students to what seems to be another long, drawn-out school year, a group of boys began working to promote spirit among the student body in all school activities, curricular and extra-curricular. From this group grew a new organization, the Boosters.

Mythical Pelican State Held, St. Martin, Bodenheimer Attended

Eugene St. Martin and James Bodenheimer attended the mythical pelican state held in Bossier Parish. The event was held at the Bossier Parish Convention Center. St. Martin and Bodenheimer were the main attractions of the event.

March of Dimes Names Rex Shaver North La. T.A.P. Chairman, First Sport Boy

Appointed chairman for the North Louisiana National Foundation of the March of Dimes is Rex Shaver. He will attend a meeting of executives from Louisiana and Mississippi on October 5 and 6 in New Orleans. Shaver is in charge of planning October 5 and 6 in New Orleans.

THE FLYER

Published in October, November, December, February, April and May by the students of JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL, 921 Jordan Street, Shreveport, Louisiana. Editor: Don Bailey and Eugene St. Martin. Managing Editor: Michael Thibodeaux. Business Manager: Don Bailey. Treasurer: Eugene St. Martin. Secretary: Robert Davis. Circulation: 1,000. Subscription: $1.00 per year. Single copy: 10 cents.

Be Leaders or Be Led

An analysis of the great leaders of the world reveals as many different kinds of qualities of leadership as there are people. Some are born leaders, some are made. Some are natural leaders, some are learned. Some are leaders in their own right, some are leaders in the eyes of others. Some are leaders in their own right, some are leaders in the eyes of others.

Flyer of the Month

Mike Rutenovich, October flyer of the month, is a student who does well in both studies and extra-curricular activities. He is a member of the Key Club and the football team. He is also a member of the basketball team. He is also a member of the tennis team.

Mel McGaha Man of Many Trades, Chooses Baseball as His Vocation

A native of Arkansas, a versatile sportsman, and one of baseball's colorful personalities, Mel McGaha actually began his baseball career as a young boy. As he grew, his interest in sports also grew and after graduating from high school, he went to the University of Arkansas on a baseball scholarship. He played for the Razorbacks for three years.

Letter to the Editor

Football is a man's game, and it is something that at Jesuit High it is a man's game. It is something that at Jesuit High it is a man's game. It is something that at Jesuit High it is a man's game. It is something that at Jesuit High it is a man's game.

Flyers Kill Kats In Vengeful Victory, Offense Tops Tors, Defense Holds Rebs

The Jesuit Blue Flyers, after giving a fine showing in the Shreveport Football League, topped the Tors 14-0. The offense was led by quarterback Tom Hines, who threw for 100 yards and three touchdowns. The defense was led by tackle Tom Hines, who had two sacks.

Barry Barnstorms Into Shreveport, Partisans Greet GOP Conservative

Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, escorted by Shreveport Mayor Tom Ivers, stopped in Shreveport on his way to Baton Rouge. He was greeted by a large crowd of supporters. Goldwater gave a short speech to the crowd.

Socialists Sojourned to New York For Annual Catholic Action Summer School

Shreveport socialists attended the Socialism Summer School of Catholic Action in New York City on August 15-22. The school was held at the Catholic Action Center in New York City. The school was attended by students from all over the United States.

School Selects Class Executives, Marshall, Noone Lead Presidents

Leading the 1964 class officers are John Marshall and Scott Noone. The school held its annual election on October 3. Marshall and Noone were elected president and vice-president, respectively. The school also elected a number of other officers.

Baby Blues Obtain Even Record, Bomb Mansfield, Fall to Knights

The 'B' Flyers earned their record of 1-1 in a close contest with the Woodmen Knights that ended in the Knights' favor, 16-12. The Flyers scored first in the first quarter, but the Knights scored three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Flyers scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, but the Knights scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

THE FLYER

Published in October, November, December, February, April and May by the students of JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL, 921 Jordan Street, Shreveport, Louisiana. Editor: Don Bailey and Eugene St. Martin. Managing Editor: Michael Thibodeaux. Business Manager: Don Bailey. Treasurer: Eugene St. Martin. Secretary: Robert Davis. Circulation: 1,000. Subscription: $1.00 per year. Single copy: 10 cents.

Barry Barnstorms Into Shreveport, Partisans Greet GOP Conservative

Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, escorted by Shreveport Mayor Tom Ivers, stopped in Shreveport on his way to Baton Rouge. He was greeted by a large crowd of supporters. Goldwater gave a short speech to the crowd.

Socialists Sojourned to New York For Annual Catholic Action Summer School

Shreveport socialists attended the Socialism Summer School of Catholic Action in New York City on August 15-22. The school was held at the Catholic Action Center in New York City. The school was attended by students from all over the United States.

School Selects Class Executives, Marshall, Noone Lead Presidents

Leading the 1964 class officers are John Marshall and Scott Noone. The school held its annual election on October 3. Marshall and Noone were elected president and vice-president, respectively. The school also elected a number of other officers.

Baby Blues Obtain Even Record, Bomb Mansfield, Fall to Knights

The 'B' Flyers earned their record of 1-1 in a close contest with the Woodmen Knights that ended in the Knights' favor, 16-12. The Flyers scored first in the first quarter, but the Knights scored three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Flyers scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, but the Knights scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

THE FLYER

Published in October, November, December, February, April and May by the students of JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL, 921 Jordan Street, Shreveport, Louisiana. Editor: Don Bailey and Eugene St. Martin. Managing Editor: Michael Thibodeaux. Business Manager: Don Bailey. Treasurer: Eugene St. Martin. Secretary: Robert Davis. Circulation: 1,000. Subscription: $1.00 per year. Single copy: 10 cents.

Welcome Extended to New Faculty, Four Jesuits, Coach Added to Staff

Five new members joined the faculty of Jesuit High School: the Reverend Martin J. Elmer, S.J., Prefect of Discipline; the Reverend Louis R. Meyer, S.J., Secretary and Superintendent of Buildings; the Reverend Thomas J. Farney, S.J.; Mr. J. Francis Burns, S.J.; and Mr. Willard W. Moore. Father Elmer teaches two classes: Latin and English. Father Meyer teaches two classes: English and Latin.

Barry Barnstorms Into Shreveport, Partisans Greet GOP Conservative

Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, escorted by Shreveport Mayor Tom Ivers, stopped in Shreveport on his way to Baton Rouge. He was greeted by a large crowd of supporters. Goldwater gave a short speech to the crowd.

School Selects Class Executives, Marshall, Noone Lead Presidents

Leading the 1964 class officers are John Marshall and Scott Noone. The school held its annual election on October 3. Marshall and Noone were elected president and vice-president, respectively. The school also elected a number of other officers.

Baby Blues Obtain Even Record, Bomb Mansfield, Fall to Knights

The 'B' Flyers earned their record of 1-1 in a close contest with the Woodmen Knights that ended in the Knights' favor, 16-12. The Flyers scored first in the first quarter, but the Knights scored three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Flyers scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, but the Knights scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

THE FLYER

Published in October, November, December, February, April and May by the students of JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL, 921 Jordan Street, Shreveport, Louisiana. Editor: Don Bailey and Eugene St. Martin. Managing Editor: Michael Thibodeaux. Business Manager: Don Bailey. Treasurer: Eugene St. Martin. Secretary: Robert Davis. Circulation: 1,000. Subscription: $1.00 per year. Single copy: 10 cents.

Welcome Extended to New Faculty, Four Jesuits, Coach Added to Staff

Five new members joined the faculty of Jesuit High School: the Reverend Martin J. Elmer, S.J., Prefect of Discipline; the Reverend Louis R. Meyer, S.J., Secretary and Superintendent of Buildings; the Reverend Thomas J. Farney, S.J.; Mr. J. Francis Burns, S.J.; and Mr. Willard W. Moore. Father Elmer teaches two classes: Latin and English. Father Meyer teaches two classes: English and Latin.

Barry Barnstorms Into Shreveport, Partisans Greet GOP Conservative

Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, escorted by Shreveport Mayor Tom Ivers, stopped in Shreveport on his way to Baton Rouge. He was greeted by a large crowd of supporters. Goldwater gave a short speech to the crowd.

School Selects Class Executives, Marshall, Noone Lead Presidents

Leading the 1964 class officers are John Marshall and Scott Noone. The school held its annual election on October 3. Marshall and Noone were elected president and vice-president, respectively. The school also elected a number of other officers.

Baby Blues Obtain Even Record, Bomb Mansfield, Fall to Knights

The 'B' Flyers earned their record of 1-1 in a close contest with the Woodmen Knights that ended in the Knights' favor, 16-12. The Flyers scored first in the first quarter, but the Knights scored three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Flyers scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, but the Knights scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

THE FLYER

Published in October, November, December, February, April and May by the students of JESUIT HIGH SCHOOL, 921 Jordan Street, Shreveport, Louisiana. Editor: Don Bailey and Eugene St. Martin. Managing Editor: Michael Thibodeaux. Business Manager: Don Bailey. Treasurer: Eugene St. Martin. Secretary: Robert Davis. Circulation: 1,000. Subscription: $1.00 per year. Single copy: 10 cents.

Welcome Extended to New Faculty, Four Jesuits, Coach Added to Staff

Five new members joined the faculty of Jesuit High School: the Reverend Martin J. Elmer, S.J., Prefect of Discipline; the Reverend Louis R. Meyer, S.J., Secretary and Superintendent of Buildings; the Reverend Thomas J. Farney, S.J.; Mr. J. Francis Burns, S.J.; and Mr. Willard W. Moore. Father Elmer teaches two classes: Latin and English. Father Meyer teaches two classes: English and Latin.

Barry Barnstorms Into Shreveport, Partisans Greet GOP Conservative

Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater, escorted by Shreveport Mayor Tom Ivers, stopped in Shreveport on his way to Baton Rouge. He was greeted by a large crowd of supporters. Goldwater gave a short speech to the crowd.

School Selects Class Executives, Marshall, Noone Lead Presidents

Leading the 1964 class officers are John Marshall and Scott Noone. The school held its annual election on October 3. Marshall and Noone were elected president and vice-president, respectively. The school also elected a number of other officers.

Baby Blues Obtain Even Record, Bomb Mansfield, Fall to Knights

The 'B' Flyers earned their record of 1-1 in a close contest with the Woodmen Knights that ended in the Knights' favor, 16-12. The Flyers scored first in the first quarter, but the Knights scored three touchdowns in the second quarter. The Flyers scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, but the Knights scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.